

Seasonal Foraging Walk

Hitchin Forager Jane Simmons will lead a socially-distanced foraging walk starting at Ransom's Pavilion, seeking out seasonal wild food ingredients, discussing the properties of various hedgerow plants and finding out how to use them in cooking, teas, jams and preserves. Please note that we have had to restrict attendance to 6 people per walk (+ Jane) due to Covid-19 and rates have increased as a result. Concessionary rates remain as before.
